N.J.S.A. 46:8-17 requires a landlord to provide his tenants with a written statement providing basic information, the statement must also be filed with the Clerk of the municipality and be posted conspicuously in a common area: the Act applies to all residential tenancies except owner-occupied two and three unit premises.

N.J.S.A. 46:8-33 provides that if a landlord has failed to comply with this requirement, no judgment for possession shall be entered until there is compliance. If there has not been compliance, the Court is required to continue the case for up to 90 days and if there is no compliance within that period, the action must be dismissed.
