

This map from 1856 is an early example of a planned community. It was designed by Richard Wilmerton and shows his vision for the layout of Delanco. This original map was restored and preserved by the Conservation Center for Art and Historic Artifacts in Philadelphia with a grant from Burlington County. The map will be on display in the municipal building.